Stage 2 breast cancer at 46

01 · ABOUT

MEET DR. HWANG.

Dr. Sue Hwang is section leader of breast radiation oncology at the AdventHealth Cancer Institute in Orlando. At 46, she was diagnosed with Stage 2 breast cancer and went from treating patients to becoming one.

She tells that story in her book, From Both Sides of the Curtain: Lessons and Reflections from an Oncologist's Personal Breast Cancer Journey. Her talks give audiences a rare view of cancer care from the exam table and the physician's chair at once.
